

MAY 2017

HOME ACCENTS TODAY®

The ultimate in luxe lounging, the Snoopy lounger from Eleanor Rigby Leather features a hand-wrought, satin brass-finished frame and Suri alpaca upholstery with leather flange detail.

Palecek updates a starburst mirror with an organic twist in coco beads with golden accents.

Handmade from sand-cast aluminum, the gold-plated accent table from Nima Oberoi Lunares revels in luxuriant texture.

Chelsea House envisions a simple leaf form as a glazed porcelain bowl with hand-painted gold stem and border accents.

24K STYLE

NATURAL STYLE REIGNS SUPREME THIS SEASON, ELEVATED BY SHIMMERING METALLICS

BY TRACY BULLA

Accents and furnishings continued their love affair with all things natural, embracing the earth and its resources with a decidedly luxe perspective. With plenty of asymmetry to mimic the glorious imperfection of nature, new introductions reveled in faceted dimensions and angled forms for a thoroughly organic feel.

Wood continued to be the material of choice for furniture and accessories, complemented by statement-making metallic finishes. While gold and silver finishes were plentiful, the directional choices this season were brass and bronze. Unfinished, cerused and light wood finishes were surprisingly joined by an ar-elevated design. Linen offerings really took off this season, joined by other natural materials such as leather and alpaca. Prevalent motifs and patterns include to architectural inspirations. Geometric forms were key to the equation, with triangles, lines, squares and circles showcased in inventive, striking compositions. Interlinked and layered shapes reinforced the importance of these timeless symbols.

Neutral colors dominated the market, but color played an important role when applied as an accent pop. Saturated shades of orange, red, cobalt and turquoise added energy and excitement, with verdant greens and radiant yellows as the most sought-after shades. ■

WOOD CONTINUED TO BE THE MATERIAL OF CHOICE FOR FURNITURE AND ACCESSORIES, COMPLEMENTED BY STATEMENT-MAKING METALLIC FINISHES.

ray of dark, dramatic finishes.

Onyx, marble and other semi-precious stones played into the nature trend, embracing a luxuriant, yet simplistic approach to bamboo, banana leaves and lattice for a refreshing al fresco aesthetic.

On the contemporary front, bold, modern looks gave a nod